MONDAY EVENING, JULY 9.

THE MAN'S AND WOMAN'S WAY OF SAYING THINGS. - Look at the ridiculous way in which a man takes for granted that a woman will be interested in his sayings and doings. If his wife has a long story to tell him she is filled with misgivings lest it may tire him, she leaves out many little picturesque touches that she may not take up his time, and, even on the hand gallop, she has not arrived within call of her conclusion when he asks with confusing directuess; "Well, how did it turn out?" But the man has never a misgiving that he will be hurried or that life has anything better to offer than listening to him. He begins his story at Charlottesville... 4 25 "... Gordonsville..... 5 13 " its earliest morning stages and lopes leisurely to its close, or if it is rapid he gives it rapid transit, but he never omits anything on his wife's account. He tells what he said and what the other man said, and what he would have said had the other man said what he might have said. And the worst of it is-the tatal point is -that his confidence is justified. The woman is interested. The man's talk takes her out of her own into a larger life, and she not only tolerates, but enjoys it; and what are you going to do about it? - Gail Hamilton.

LILLIS ADJUSTABLE TREADLE ADAPTED TO ALL SEWING MACHINES.

This Treadle is one of the greatest improvements of the age, as by its introduction the ob-iection to the use of Sewing Machines is obvi-viated, and instead of its being an unhealthy and laborious task, condemned by the medical fraternity and injurious to these who work them, by the use of this attachment the opera-tion of the machine is positively a healthful and pleasant exercise. Several of these Treadles are now in use in our city, and we are permitted to refer to those who own them and who aver that they would not be without them for the original cost of the machine. All orders left at C. C. Berry's Fancy Store, at the Mansion House, or with either of the undersigned will be promptly
